The Epworth Sleepiness Scale (ESS)

How likely are you to doze off or fall asleep in the following situations, in contrast to feeling just tired? This refers to your usual way of life in recent times. Even if you have not done some of these things recently try to work out how they would have affected you. Use the following scale to choose the most appropriate number for each situation:

- 0 = would never doze
- 1 = slight chance of dozing
- 2 = moderate chance of dozing
- 3 = high chance of dozing

| SITUATION  | CHANGE OF DOZING (0-3) |
|--|------------------------|
| Sitting and reading  |                        |
| Watching television  |                        |
| Sitting inactive in a public place (e.g. a theater or meeting) |                        |
| As a passenger in a car for an hour without a break            |                        |
| Lying down to rest in the afternoon when circumstances permit  |                        |
| Sitting and talking to someone                                 |                        |
| Sitting quietly after a lunch without alcohol                  |                        |
| In a car, while stopped for a few minutes in the traffic       |                        |
| TOTAL SCORE   |                        |

SCORE RESULTS:

- 1-6            Congratulations, you are getting enough sleep!
- 7-8            Your score is average
- 9 and up      Very sleepy and should seek medical advice

|---|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Has there ever been a period of time when you were not your usual self and...  |                       |                       |

Scoring

Scores of 5, 10, and 15 are taken as the cut-off points for mild, moderate and severe anxiety, respectively. When used as a screening tool, further evaluation is recommended when the score is 10 or greater.

Using the threshold score of 10, the GAD-7 has a sensitivity of 89% and a specificity of 82% for GAD. It is moderately good at screening three other common anxiety disorders - panic disorder (sensitivity 74%, specificity 81%), social anxiety disorder (sensitivity 72%, specificity 80%) and post-traumatic stress disorder (sensitivity 66%, specificity 81%).
